The record of the baptisms on 1 Aug 1801 in St. Issey of the two boys William Nelson and Charles is particularly interesting. It reads:

Charles Son of William Griffiths & Amelia Warren his Wife born in Bath Jan 4th 1800 baptized August 1st"

Death of her husband, the Rev William Griffiths in 1802

From Philip Strange's Blog, in the comments:

1802 Rev W Griffiths died in St Issey, left £449 to Amelia

Also from the Comments section on Philip Strange's Blog:

25 May 1819, Amelia's son William Nelson, aged 23, married Ann Conradi in Dover.
 William Nelson Griffiths was a fossil dealer. His son John Griffiths was a famous collector and dealer donating many specimens to various museums

Extra note from Robin Jarvis:

I have found John Rogers Griffiths in the 1861 Census living in Trentishoe with his sister, Caroline Mary. I am attaching an image.
 Unfortunately the writing is hard to read, but it does at least confirm that John Rogers was born in Sidmouth in about 1795.

Very best wishes,
